

FIRST ANNUAL DOCTORAL RESEARCH SHARE

10 March 2017

Maison de la Paix - IHEID

Program :

9:30 – 11:00: Auditorium A2 - Panel 1: Markets and Human Rights

- Geoffroy Legentilhomme (International History) From Cantonal Monopoly to Market Competition: Real Estate Insurance in Geneva (1821 - 1864)
- Ellen Holtmaat (International Relations) Company-state Relations in Global Governance: Private Standards, Market Concentration, and a Political Economy of Exports
- Yira Lazala (Anthropology and Sociology of Development) Translocal Women's Human Rights Advocacy Between Nariño (Colombia) and Geneva: An Ethnographical Approach.

11:00 – 11:15: Interpetal: Coffee Break

11:15 – 12:45: Auditorium A2 - Panel 2: Sustainable Development

- Lucy Reimers (International Law) Unsustainable Global Consumption And International Law: Tackling Demand-Driven Environmental Harm
- Damian Clavel (International History) Enemy mine: Poyais, Mahogany, and the Miskitu King 1820-1824
- Raphael Schapira (Anthropology and Sociology of Development) Learning through the Body: Habitus, Community and Globalization in Brazilian Jiu-Jitsu.

12:45 – 14:00: Interpetal - Poster session & lunch buffet

- Pierre Horna (International Law) David & Goliath: How Young Competition Agencies Can Succeed In Fighting Cross-Border Cartels
- Lauren Riggs (Anthropology and Sociology of Development) “Modern” Alchemy and the Quest for Anti-aging Science
- Defne Gonenc (International Relations) Litigation as an Ambiguous Driver of Norm Transformation: A Study of Human Rights Approaches to Environment
- Parham Farhang Vesali (International Law) An RTA Solution for Perpetual Peace in the Middle East

14:00 – 15:00: Auditorium A2 – Panel 3: Conflicts and Violence

- Shiqi Guo (International Economics) The Prisoners’ Redemption: A Field Experiment on In-group Favoritism within A Stigmatized Group
- Joel Alfred Veldkamp (International History) Sectarian Violence in the 1925 Syrian Revolution

15:00 – 15:15 : Interpetal: Coffee Break

15:15 – 16:45: Auditorium A2 Round table – Early Academic Career With: Annabelle Littoz-Monnet (Political Science) Amalia Ribí (History) Fuad Zarbiyev (Law) Rahul Mukerjee (Economics), Graziella Moraes Silva (Anthropology and Sociology).

16:45 – 17:45: Auditorium A2 – Panel 4: Financial History

- Maylis Avaro (International Economics) Monetary imperialism under the Bretton woods era: a new view from Central banks’ Foreign exchange reserves
- Mariusz Lukasiewicz (International History) Gold, Finance and Speculation: The making of the Johannesburg Stock Exchange, 1887-1899.

17:45 – 19:00 : Interpetal – Cocktail